

Results of the Resurrection
John 11:21-27

Russell Cook
West End Church of Christ
Knoxville, TN

1. Easter means many things to many different people.
2. Maybe you are thinking, “What possible difference could the resurrection make in my life?”
3. Jesus stated, “I am the resurrection and the life.”
4. This was not some mere word of comfort to Martha, but divine truth for all humanity.
What does Jesus' resurrection mean to us today?

I. Jesus' Resurrection Means He Lives Even Though He Died. John 11:25

- A. Jesus established the fact of His own resurrection.
- B. The Roman government confirmed His resurrection.
- C. The Disciples witnessed His resurrection.
- D. Believers for two thousand years have proven His resurrection.

II. Jesus' Resurrection Means We Can Live Even If We Die.
John 11:25b-26a

- A. For the believer, physical death is not the end.
 1. 1 Corinthians 15:54-57
- B. For the believer, eternal life is promised.

III. Jesus' Resurrection Means All Men Must Face His Question.
John 11:26b

- A. Consider Jesus' question.
- B. Consider your response.